SCLC SIGNS PAC WITH FOOD GIANT

The Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) has announced an agreement with Food Giant Inc. to secure jobs and upgrading opportunities and increase minority business utilization. The plan is the most comprehensive yet for a food chain.

The company has agreed to provide for increased employment and upgrading in all hourly job categories including departmental managers.

In management, the company has agreed to move immediately in its training and upgrading programs. The minimum of 18 (From 2) Black store managers and a comparable number of co-managers over the next four years. There are now four Black managers and before the end of the year there may six.

The plan calls for the increased use of Black vendors. Personnel officials have been specifically assigned to seek Black owned, controlled brokered products for resale in company stores.

The company has agreed to also do business with Black law firms, insurance companies and brokers and advertising companies.

FAUNTROY CALLS FOR MEDIA BOYCOTT

Comparing the case of Black anchor woman Beverly Draper in Detroit to that of Rose Parks in Montgomery, Alabama, Congressman Walter E. FAuntroy, chairman of the Congressional Black Caucus, called upon Black citizens to implement Rule 10 of the Black Leadership Family Plan: "Boycott Negative Media." Ms. Draper was recently suspended from and subsequently resigned her position as lead anchor at TV-2 in Detroit.

Speaking to a packed house of over 1,000 at Detroit's Harftord Memorial Baptist Church, the Caucus Chairman called upon Black Detroit to do two things: boycott products advertised on Channel 2. news until Ms. Draper is re-instated; and cancel their subscriptions to the Detroit Free Press, which has been consistently negative in its coverage of Detroit's Black Mayor Coleman Young, until the paper hires a Black Columnist, assigns a Black city editor to cover the city county beat and has Free Press columnist, Mike Duffy, to apologize to the Black community for unfairly demeaning Ms. Draper by saying "she was only at TV-2 because she was attractive and could read a Teleprompter."

In an obvious reference to the Reverend Jesse Jackson's recently called boycott of Anheuser Busch and Budweiser beer, Congressman Fauntroy said, "Since Bud is a Dud, then the word ought to go out from this place that 'the Free Press is a Mess' and that 'TV 2 is not for you.'

Waiting patiently to be served.

COMMUNITY EXTENDS THANKS TO BROWNE's STAR GRILL

On Saturday, September 18, 1982, 20 needy children were treated to New Clothing thru the sponsorship of Browne's Star Grill located at 1114 South K. Street Tacoma. The children were selected by Bishop D. L. Brooks of The Holy Trinity Temple, Church Of God In Christ, on a non discrimatoral basic, according to their needs. The children were bussed to The down town People's Store by the Holy Trinity Temple Tacoma clothing bank workers.

After shopping, the children and parents were treated to Lunch at BROWNE'S.

We in behalf of the Community, extends our Thanks. MAY GOD BLESS YOU MORE. *******

Lèland Blasts Administration

Houston -- U. S. Rep. Mickey Leland (D-Houston) said this week that he is "deeply angered" by the decision of the Civil Aeronautics Board (CAB) to allow once-a-week flights between Houston and Johannesburg by South African Airways (SAA). Leland said CAB decision, made public over the weeken d, demonstrated "South Africa's belief that America will tolerate the racism and oppression openly practiced by the South African government" and that the CAB had shown "a colossal insensitivity to public opinion and a disturbing lack of courage".

Leland, who represents the 18th Congressional District in Houston, has been working to block the SAA application for permission to fly into Houston since mid-June. He told a news conference in his Houston office that he would continue the effort.

"Granting SAA's application for exemption will clearly aid in South Africa's economic development and thus strengthen a racist government determined to subjugate South Africa's non-white peoples. In the process, the United States, by aiding in South Africa's economic development through increased trade and commerce, will become a party to racial separation and oppression," Leland said.

Last week's CAB decision will permit South African Airways to shift one of its existing flights into New York to the Houston market without going through the usual certification procedure and without renegotiating the U. S. - South Africa bilateral agreement which authorized the New York-Johannesburg flights.

"There is no doubt in my mind," Leland stated," "that the Reagan administration supported the SAA application, although not publicly. The Administration, like the Board (CAB), was not willing to face the storm of controversy which public support or consideration (of the SAA application) was likely to create."

The South African airline, which is an agency of the South African government, also told the CAB that granting the exemption would eliminate the need to renegotiate the bilateral agreement, an agreement they said it would not be "fesible to renegotiate" in the "reasonably near future"

R.E. SMITH CONTRUCTION Company

Robert Earl Smith, president of R.E. Smith Co., General Contractors, feels that, "the people of the community should be getting some of the money that generate through the construction trade."

He feels that minority apprentices and skilled iron workers could be more visible on the many construction sites that are visible in Pierce County, King County and Thurston County.

Smith, who has been in the construction business for 10 years, said that he goes through the local Iron Workers Union in order to hire but, "when I get there I need to have the names of Minority Business Enterprises -- the names of minority iron workers." Lists of names are provided by the union but Smith wants to be specific in his hiring. "I need to be able to ask for who I want," continued Smith.

A $218.000 construction job that Smith and two other minorities were involved on was initiated by Tacoma City Light and completed in August of 1982. Currently, Smith is involved on three construction sites within the city: an inn under 15th streets; the parking garage on South J Street between 4th and 5th streets and; the 23rd and D Street bridge.

The R.E. Smith Co. is currently a firm which handles a wide range of business matters. Such as, evaluating and advising businesses on matters ranging from transportation to environmental impact. And in addition to being a consultant, the company is responsible for manufacturing necessary component parts for construction and; it specializes in supplying a general contractor or developer's needs.

Smith's family home and his company are located in inner Quartermaster Bay on Vashon Island where his wife, Dee, cares for their two children (Rochelle, age four and Robert Earl, Jr., age eight months) and operate the company's computers.

At age 37, Smith stands about six feet, two inches tall and the balance of his stature could be expressed as full. He is jovial and his persistence can be recognized by his achievements in the business world. Raised in Renton, by his mother, Ann B. Smith, Smith received his higher education at the Yakima Valley Junior College and The University of Washington.

TACOMA STUDENT FAIR DAY

Check out a career, work a computer, see a car built by students that gets 100 miles per gallon. These are but a sample of the exciting activities scheduled to take place when Tacoma students and staff "Do the Puyallup" on Fair Day Sept. 22. Non-stop activities involving some 600 students will run from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. in the Western Washington Fair's education building.

Tacoma students will leave class at 11:30 a.m. on fair day to participate in and enjoy presentations on stage and at special booths all under a banner which reminds their audiences, "Tacoma schools are a good place to be."

"The tradition of taking part in this large-scale community event allows us to have fun and demonstrate Tacoma's education programs at the same time," Del Cross, Tacoma schools superintendents, points out, adding that education can also be entertaining.

PROVERBS 15: 9

A soft answer turneth away wrath: but grievous words stir up anger.

The tongue of the wise useth knowledge aright: but the mouth of fools poureth out foolishness.

The eyes of the Lord are in every place, beholding the evil and the good.

A wholesome tongue is a tree of life: but perverseness therein is a breach in the spirit.

A fool despiseth his father's instruction: but he that regardeth reproof is prudent.

In the house of the righteous is much treasure: but in the revenues of the wicked is trouble.

The lips of the wise desperse knowledge: but the heart of the foolish doeth not so.

The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination to the Lord: but the prayer of the upright is his delight.

The way of the wicked is an abomination unto the Lord: but he loveth him that followeth after righteousness.

TOGETHER

Let's get together with one another and try to make things Better for each other.

Let's sit and talk and try to understand their is room enough for both of us in this great land.

Let's stop and look, at one another I know you are not my sister and I'm not your brother. We can talk it's no harm and walk away with peace of mind.

By Ernest White.

DREAMS

Oh, how I wish I had the time, To read all the books I want to read, and Write all the stories I want to write.

I want enough time to travel to far off places, Meet and become friends with more people, And say all that I have to say.

I guess that what I really want to do is to fulfill all my dreams.

But if every dream and every goal were attainable, I would have nothing to look forward to.

Jean B. Murray-Edge.

We welcome news of your church and civic events.
